At the picnic that the farmers of the county will hold at Silver Lake, Saturday, to be a postponed picnic made necessary on account of the rain that spoiled the fun at the other, the Kent and Peninsula baseball teams will meet in a game for glory and the decision. The Peninsula have the reputation of playing good ball and the Kents are too well known to require comment, so the contest Saturday will be a good one.

THE SOUTH END-WESTER GAME
The South Ends and the Westers, having played six games of ball, and having broken even on the series, will play the deciding game at the Euclid grounds Saturday. Each team is determined that theirs will be the victory in this match and an especial effort will be made to play good ball and make the contest one that will be equal to any match played on the local grounds this year.

SIMMS-MCGOVERN FIGHT PROBABLE.

Art Simms believes that he will be able to get a match with Terry McGovern before the end of this winter. He says that if the plans he now has are successful, he will meet McGovern in San Francisco after the terrible New Yorker has his fights there.

At present Simms has no fights in immediate prospect and will devote his efforts to making a success of his saloon.

"WILD BILL'S" TRAINING.
If the stories told about the training methods of "Wild Bill" Hanrahan are true, he has but little regard for his health and trifles with the rules of hygiene in a reckless manner. While training at Captain Bond's place at Stratford, for his fight with Marvin Hart, which was to have been decided at Louisville, Hanrahan was in the habit of going out for runs on the road, coming in all overheated and doing without a rubdown, throwing in great quantities of beer to cool himself off and smoking a pipe that would put a navy's short clay to shame. If the young man continues to train in this way it will not be long until he loses the strength and stamina that have made him such a dangerous scrapper.

HIRING FROM SMALL TEAMS.

The hiring of young ball players for the big league teams continues. First there was Bracken. After his taking by Cleveland, comes the hiring of 'Gene Wright. Managers are moving and are watching more from the small teams wherever they can find one who gives promise of showing results.

GOLF TOURNAMENT.

The Portage Golf club is preparing to hold a tri-state golf tournament in Akron in October. The meet will embrace professional and amateur events and is in charge of H. W. Smith, the Portage Golf club's professional man. He is trying to raise funds for the meet and for prizes for the different matches.

Some of the golfers who are expected at this meeting are: Arthur Smith and Ernest Way, of Pittsburgh; W. H. Way and Joe Mitchell, of Cleveland; Jack Harrison and Willie Horv, of Dayton, and the O'Neil brothers, of Toledo. Besides these there are many others of fame. This will be the biggest meeting of golfers that Akron has had.

LAWSON TALKED.

Boston, Sept. 13.—(Spl.)—The announcement that Cresceus and the Abbot are to race at Readville next week, having provoked considerable inquiry as to the reason for the cancellation of the Cresceus-Borahma race, Mr. Lawson tonight explained that after Charley Herr went lame, thereby preventing his meeting, Cresceus and Borahma, Mr. Jewett, of the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, suggested that as Borahma had been beaten by Lord Derby there would be no interest in Borahma racing Cresceus. Mr. Lawson said that he agreed with Mr. Jewett, as it was evident that Borahma was not fast enough for Ketchum's horse.

SIMMS AND SPIKE SULLIVAN.

Joe Macias has written to Art Simms that he has a good chance of knocking the Akron man against Spike Sullivan, the fight to take place at Hartford. Macias does not like the report that Art is matched against Jim Dailley, the English man and thinks that Dailley is too heavy for the Akron man. Macias has challenged the world for Simms and the challenge has been printed in the New York Journal.

ART'S ALL RIGHT.

Artie Simms is the whole thing in the east, and the Stratford Herald has a long description of his fight with Kid Thomas, in a Sunday edition of the paper issued recently, in which Simms' style is dissected carefully and compared with that of other fighters. Simms is regarded as not only a corner but as a top notch fighter who has already arrived at the top of the heap, and sporting writers claim for him all that can be claimed for any fighter. He is said to have brains and the ability of the best of the scrappers, so that if nothing unexpected happens, his career in the ring is predicted as a brilliant one, and full of championship possibilities.

EAST AKRON ORGANIZED.

East Akronites met last night and organized a football team for the season. The backers of the team claim that they have a strong outfit and that the East Akron team will give some surprises to other teams before the season is ended. The club challenges any team in the city whose average weight is not more than 140 pounds and will open the season with a game with the Yales on the first Saturday in October.

Henry Braydon, Harris, N. C., says: "I took medicine 20 years for asthma but one bottle of One Minute Cough Cure did me more good than anything else during that time. Best Cough Cure."

GUEST

Could Not Recognize Akron.

How Louis Loeb Surprised G. C. Marienthal.

Mr. G. C. Marienthal, of Chicago, 15 years ago one of the leading business men of Akron, was in the city Thursday, the guest of Mr. Louis Loeb. Mr. Marienthal was accompanied by his daughter. This was his first visit to Akron since leaving here.

Mr. Loeb took his visitor all about the city and Mr. Marienthal expressed the greatest surprise as he saw the changes and growth of the city. He could not recognize the Akron of 15 years ago.

Mr. E. H. Osterstock, of 344 Carroll st., is entertaining his brother, Mr. A. H. Osterstock, and comrade, Levi Fraunfelder, of Easton, Pa., veterans who came to Akron after attending the G. A. R. encampment at Cleveland.

Mr. Osterstock is Junior Vice Commander of Post 217 at Easton and Mr. Fraunfelder is Officer of the Guard, and Alde de Camp to the Department of Pennsylvania. They served during the war in the 47th Pennsylvania V. L.

London, Sept. 12.—(Spl.)—Prince Krapotkin, the Russian revolutionist, in an interview today with a representative of a news agency on the attempted assassination of President McKinley, characterized Czolgosz as "a common murderer," and said he should be dealt with as such. Krapotkin refused to express an opinion on the political significance of the anarchist's act. Enrico Malatesta, the Italian refugee, said: "There is no reason for such an act in a country like America. It will bring more trouble to the innocent than to the guilty, as in the case of Spain and Italy after the Anarchist outrages there a few years back."
